TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7. 1738.

Nov. 810

7th 810.

Friday arrived a Mail from Holland, with the following Placert of the States General, for a solemn Day of Thanksgiving, Fasting, and Prayer, to be observ'd throughout the Seven United Provinces.

HEREAS by the special Providence of the Almighty, and by his Long-Sufferance, our dear Country is continued in the Enjoyment of the inestimable Gifts of Liberty and Religion, and a Peace of 25 Years successively, which is since become general among the Christian Powers; we are oblig'd to acknowledge, that we cannot ascribe these to desirable Blessings, to any thing but the incomprehensible and infinite Goodness and Clemency of the Almighty, who is incessantly heaping his Blessings upon us, notwithstanding the Sins and Iniquities of the Country, and notwithstanding the small Appearance of an Amendment, that 'tis to be fear'd that God, who is just as well as Gracious, will withdraw his helping Hand, and cause his Wrath to fall upon our dear Country; the rather, because we have already felt sundry Effects of it, even in the midst of Peace, the Condition of this State, which was so flourishing, growing every Day worse and worse, instead of better.

For this Reason the States General of the United Provinces, in Consideration of the Premises, and being thoroughly convinc'd, that all depends solely on the Blessing of God, have thought fit, considering the Circumstances of Times and Affairs, to turn themselves towards the Almighty; and for this End have, with our good Liking, appointed the 5th of March for a solemn Day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, to be celebrated in all the United Provinces, Confederate Lands and Towns, in order to acknowledge upon that Day, in a solemn Manner, the Goodness of God, to praise the Lord with all our Hearts, and to thank him for the Divine Protection with which he has preserved this State hitherto, and for all the Benefits which we have received in such Abundance from his bountiful Hand; especially with regard to the Peace, which has continued 25 Years, and is become general: To humble ourselves also before God, by a sincere Confession of all the Sins and Iniquities of the Country, which increase every Day; to prostrate ourselves before the Lord with a true Repentance, and a sincere Desire of a speedy Conversion, and earnestly to pray to him, from the Bottom of our Hearts, to grant us the Pardon of all the Sins and Iniquities of the Land, and to continue to pour down his Blessings upon our dear Country, to the End, that under his Protection it may prosper, and be long preserv'd in its Liberty and Religion; that the Peace we now enjoy may be lasting; and that Peace and Tranquillity may be establish'd in other Countries; that it may please him, by his Grace and Goodness, to avert those Plagues and Punishments from our dear Country, which it has already too much deserved; that the Protestant Churches, and those which profess the true Christian Religion, may be universally deliver'd from Oppression and Persecution: All for the Glory of God's most Holy Name, for the Propagation and Increase of the true Reformed Religion, for the Preservation of our dear Liberty, and for the Salvation of our Souls, &c.

The Execution of the noted Jew Joseph Suls of Oppenheim, is confirm'd with these Particulars. From Stuttgart they write, that on the 19th of last Month he was removed from the Castle of Asperg to the public Prisons in Stuttgart, under a Guard of a Company of Grenadiers. He was carried in an open Chaise, and tho' he was loaded with Irons, he had a Waistcoat on of red Taffeta, and a Vest of green Taffeta, lac'd. Two Grenadiers sat over-against him, and there was one behind, with others on each Side. When he was advis'd to prepare for Death before the Sentence was read to him, he shew'd, or at least affect'd to shew a great deal of Courage, notwithstanding the Paleness which the Horrors of so tedious a Confinement had imprint'd on his Face.

He seem'd resolv'd to die a Jew, at least he did not desire to speak with any Clergyman, either Papist or Protestant.

They write from Franckfort, that when he was told he must die, he shed Tears, and begged hard for a Pardon; but when he heard by his Sentence what Sort of Death he was to die, he abandoned himself to Cries and Lamentations, and at last vented his Rage by a Volley of such Imprecations, that the Executioner was order'd to stop his Mouth. After the Reading of his Sentence, he was carried on the 24th ult. to the Place of Execution. He was then dress'd in a Scarlet Coat with Gold Lace, White Silk Stockings, &c. And in this Equipage he was hang'd on an Iron Gibbet, on which the Alchymist was suspended in 1597, who promised Duke Frederica Mountains of Gold. When Suls was dead, he was taken down from the Gibbet and put into an Iron Cage made on Purpose for him, 6 Foot high, in which he was afterwards hoisted up to the Gibbet, to remain there for a Spectacle.

Another Letter from Franckfort says, That when Suls was carried before the Commissioners that were to pass Sentence upon him, he fell at their Knees, and begged heartily for Mercy; and that being silenced in order to hear his Sentence read, when the Reader came to that Part of it, which declared, That he should be hang'd for having labour'd to ruin the Country; he gave Proofs of the utmost Despair, so that they were oblig'd to hold him and to stop his Mouth. This Letter adds, That when he was brought to the Place of Execution, he struggled so hard, that they had much ado to dispatch him; and that he offer'd when he was upon the Ladder, to make a Speech to the People, but could not be heard, by reason of the Beating of the Drum.

Letters from the Frontiers of Turkey by the Way of Poland say, the Porte continues to make vast Preparations for the next Campaign; that they have granted double Pay to the Janitaries who are again to be employ'd in the Siege of Oczakow; that all the Troops in and about Constantinople are to be sent to Hungary, and replaced by those expected from Asia; and that the Officers and Soldiers are oblig'd to take a very particular Oath, on occasion of the present War.

Those of the 7th ult. O. S. from Belgrade say, they have received Advice that about 2000 Turks having a Design to surprize the Fort of Bitritz, the Germans in Garison, to the Number of 1500 Men, being inform'd of it, laid an Ambush for them, and gave them such a warm Reception, that they were forced to retire with very great Loss.

Letters of the 21st ult. from Vienna say, that the Turks foreseeing the Russians will make an Attempt to join the Emperor's Troops in Transylvania, are assembling a great Number of Troops on that Side of the Country, and taken Possession of the Post call'd the Iron Gate, which is one of the Principal Passes from Wallachia to Transylvania.

The Duke of Lorain and Grand Duke of Tuscany, in order to shew the Falseness of certain Reports of a Misunderstanding betwixt him and the Count de Seckendorf, sent one of his Gentlemen some Days ago to inquire after his Health.

The Emperor thinking the Presence of the Prince and Bishop of Bamberg and Wurzburg necessary at this Juncture, wrote a Letter to him for that Purpose, to which the Episcopal Prince returned Answer, 'That he took his Imperial Majesty's Invitation, for a Proof that he was persuad'd of his Attachment to his Person, and his Zeal for his Service; that of such his Disposition, he would endeavour to give Proofs to his Death: That he had a most grateful Sense of the Honour which his Imperial Majesty did him to believe his Opinion might be of any Service, and that he was making ready to come and be a Sharer of the Goodness he express'd to him, &c.'

Letters of the 16th ult. from Naples say, the City has agreed to present the King Don Carlos with a Free Gift of a Million of Livres, on account of his Marriage, payable in 6 Years; and that the Day before a Fire broke out at the Palace of the Pope's Nuncio, by which the Records, and a great many Papers of Importance were intirely consumed.

And from Rome there are Letters of the 14th, which say, that several English Persons of Distinction are lately arriv'd there, to the Number of above 30, besides those of an inferior Rank; and that some of them having sent to the Majordomo of the Court, to know if they might have the Honour to pay their Respects to the Pope, the Majordomo returned them Answer, 'That as there was no Approaching his Holiness but upon the Knee, their Religion perhaps would not permit them to conform to a Custom, without which they could not obtain their Request.' But this Ceremony was so far from being a Bar to those Occasional Conformists, that they waited on the Pope, observing all the customary Formalities, and the Pope received them with all possible Distinction, assuring them at the same Time, That he took this Mark of Civility from them most kindly, and that he had always a very great Esteem for their Nation.

The only short and infallible Cure

For that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbatic Humours, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any tedious Cure, or the least Purgings, which by an unaccountable Mixture is generally advised, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the least Trouble,

Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, doth cure the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbatic Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced, for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blisters, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (where proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters can ever other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Greenickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronic Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and stagnant Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and constantly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly Lighter, Brisk and Vigorous to action, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these famous and pleasant Chymical Drops have to universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbatic Humours, and other Chronic Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, from under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's special Appointment, are to be sold only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Vue, in the Metropolis, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,

Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of 14 Years Success with the Publick,

Is sold by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. King's Picture Shop in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange; at Mr. Martin's Toy Shop, the Sign of the Three Bishops near Durham Yard in the Strand; and by Mr. Hillyard, Bookseller in York, at 2 s. the Bottle Retail.

It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, but especially in the Spring and Fall; is so very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Dose; and so gentle, that it weakens not the most Aged: For it is a safe and effectual Alternative, to be taken in a less Dose than where Purgings is necessary, or Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a singular Property well known to the Learned, to be in some Cathartic Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances (a Distemper so common to English People, that not one in a thousand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are sorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Disease in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmost or last Effects on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapses (notwithstanding what may be dreamt to the contrary) the Truth of which is witnessed to daily, by the many Thousands that have taken this Medicine. It so powerfully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that scrophulous Cancers are also speedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blisters, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronic Diseases prevented, and a due State of Health secured.

It removes all Pain from the Stomach, helps Digestion, opens Obstructions, and is peculiarly serviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickness. 'Tis the best Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all those rony, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is deservedly esteemed both in City and Country, the most general Family Medicine that ever was known to preserve Health, and hinder no Business or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given with it are large and full.
